

CSTE PFAS Workgroup Priorities

February 2020

What topics would you like to see addressed by the PFAS Workgroup? (Please select all that apply)

#	Answer	Count
1	Overviews of state's investigations	9
2	New research findings	8
3	Disentangling our public health response obligations, research aims, and data protection efforts	4
4	Best practices in sharing lab test results with participants	3
5	Challenges in conducting exposure assessments following the PEATT	2
6	Community engagement challenges	9
7	Other topics:	2
	Total	37

Other Topics Suggested:

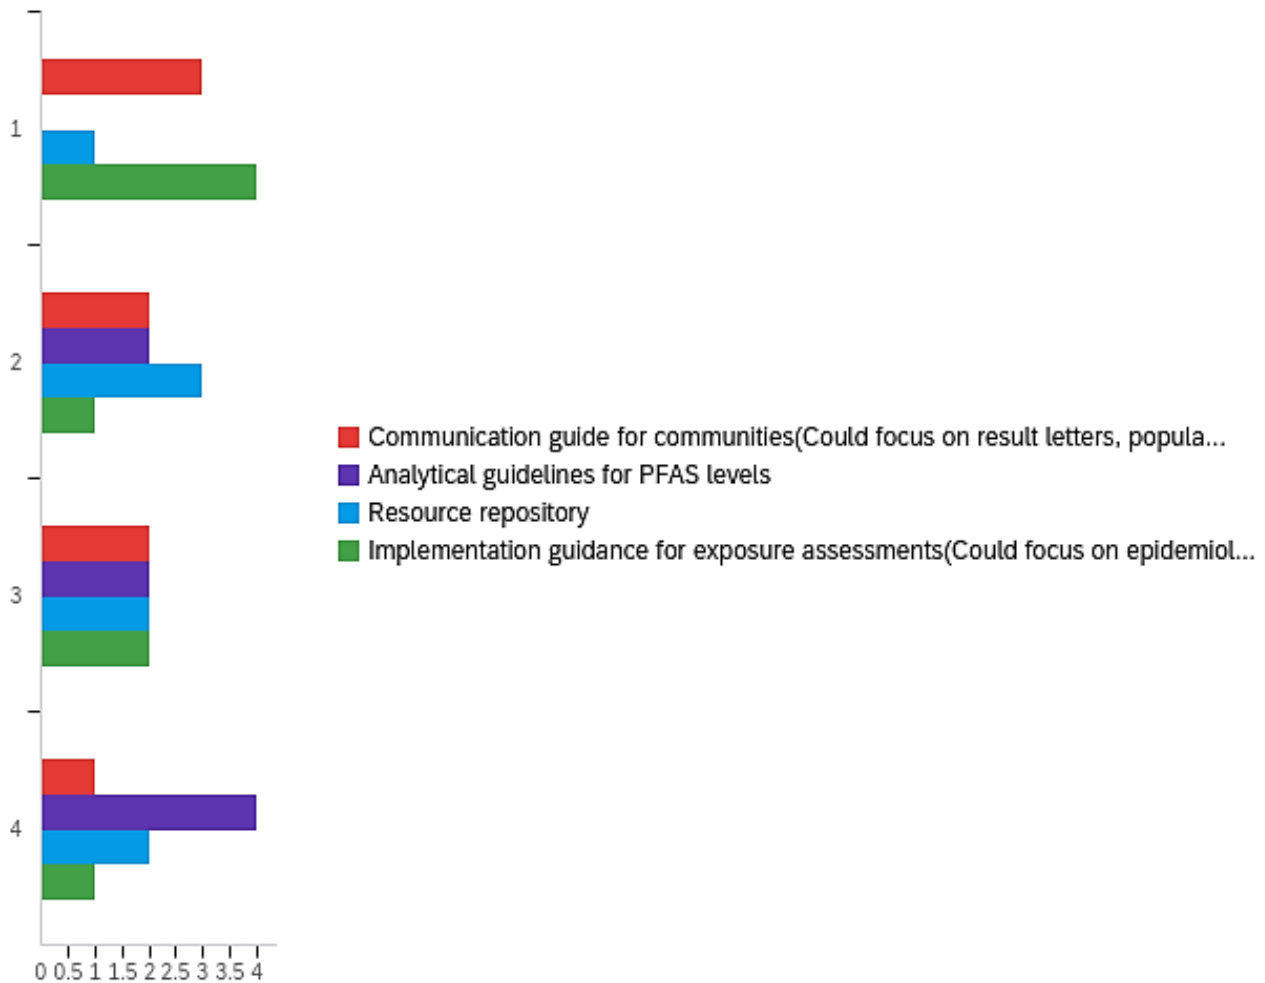

managing requests for blood testing - what is public health service role here?

assessment, prioritization, and resources for monitoring private wells for PFAS

Would you be willing to give an overview of your state's investigations?

State	Respondent	Email Address
Oregon	Ali Hamade	ali.k.hamade@state.or.us
Alaska	Sarah Yoder	sarah.yoder@alaska.gov
Texas	Evelyn Reategui Zirena	evelyn.reategui-zirena@dshs.texas.gov
Texas	Emily Hall	emily.hall@dshs.texas.gov
Vermont	Lauren Prinzing	lauren.prinzing@vermont.gov

Please rank the following potential PFAS Workgroup products:

Do you have any suggestions for specific presenters that you would like to see on future PFAS Workgroup calls?

Dana Kolpin USGS

Jessie Buckley (Johns Hopkins)