

Healthy Animals | Healthy YOUTh

Healthy Animals | Healthy YOUTh

ZOONOSIS EDUCATION PROJECT FOR YOUTH IN AGRICULTURE

Zoonoses Kit Facilitator Training and Project Resources Meeting

July 14, 2020, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m. via WebEx conference

AGENDA

6:45pm – Begin logging in to WebEx

7:00pm - WebEx session - Setting the Stage

Chris Anderson, 4-H Youth Development Specialist, UME 4-H
Dr. David Crum, State Public Health Veterinarian, MD Dept. of Health
Dr. Michael Odian, State Veterinarian, MD Dept. of Agriculture

7:30pm - Zoonosis Activity Kits

Maryland 4-H Zoonoses Team Members: Lacie Ashby, Donielle Axline,
April Barczewski, Sheryl Bennett, Ashley Travis, and Carrie Wivell

Demonstration of Example Activities

- 2.1. What is a pathogen? - "Build a pathogen"
- 2.2. Health for One, One Health for All
- 3.3. Disease Transmission via Aerosol and Droplets
- 3.4. Direct Contact Glo Germ Activity
- 4.2. Painted Hands: Hand Sanitizer and PPE Glove Use

What's Included in the Kits
Distribution/Location of Kits
Facilitator Resources Webpage

8:25pm – Next Steps and Wrap-Up

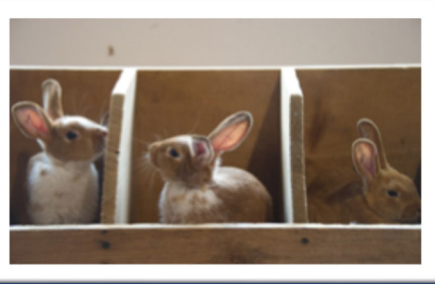

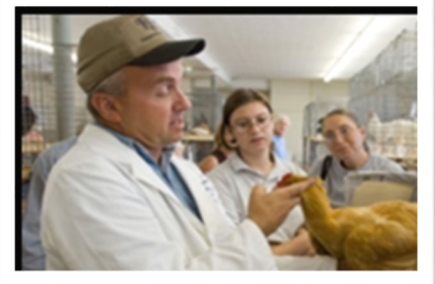

8:30pm – Adjourn

MARYLAND
Department of Health

Funding support from CDC/USDA/CSTE Project Development
Grant: Influenza and Zoonoses among Youth in Agriculture

QUESTIONS/COMMENTS

Chris Anderson
Maryland 4-H Center
College Park, MD
Email: canders2@umd.edu

Carrie Wivell
Maryland 4-H Center
College Park, MD
Email: cwivell@umd.edu