

CSTE Nationally Notifiable Condition List

As of June 11, 2009

The following conditions are immediately notifiable to CDC for all or some cases, as specified in the relevant CSTE position statements:
Anthrax
Botulism
Brucellosis
Diphtheria
Influenza, novel
Measles
Plague
Polio
Rabies in an animal
Rabies in a human
Rubella
SARS Coronavirus
Smallpox
Tularemia
Viral hemorrhagic fevers
Yellow fever
Notification to CDC for the following conditions should utilize standard methods:
Arboviral Disease, Calif. Serogroup
Arboviral Disease, Eastern equine
Arboviral Disease, Powassan
Arboviral Disease, St. Louis
Arboviral Disease, West Nile Virus
Arboviral Disease, Western equine Cancer
Chancroid
Chlamydia trachomatis
Cryptosporidiosis
Cyclosporiasis
Dengue Virus Infections
Ehrlichiosis/Anaplasmosis
Escherichia coli, Shiga toxin-producing (STEC)
Giardiasis
Gonorrhea
Haemophilus influenzae
Hantavirus pulmonary syndrome
Hemolytic Uremic Syndrome, Post-diarrheal
Hepatitis A
Hepatitis C
HIV
Influenza-associated mortality, pediatric

CSTE Nationally Notifiable Condition List

As of June 11, 2009

Lead, exposure screening test result
Legionellosis
Listeriosis
Malaria
Meningococcal Disease (Neisseria meningitidis)
Mumps
Pertussis
Pesticide-related Illness
Psittacosis
Q fever
Spotted Fever Rickettsiosis
Rubella, Congenital Syndrome
Salmonellosis
Shigellosis
Silicosis
Staphylococcus (VISA, VRSA)
Streptococcus (STSS, IPD)
Syphilis
Tetanus
Trichinellosis (Trichinosis)
Tuberculosis
Typhoid fever
Varicella (Chickenpox)
Vibrio cholera
Vibriosis
Waterborne Disease Outbreak
The following conditions are provisionally included in the CSTE Nationally Notifiable Condition List. Conditions included on a provisional basis are those which have not yet met the criteria outlined in CSTE position statement 08-EC-02; for example, a CDC Case Notification Request may be incomplete, or a revised position statement containing a case reporting definition may be incomplete.
Foodborne outbreaks
Hansen’s disease (leprosy)
Hepatitis B, acute
Hepatitis, viral, chronic: Hepatitis B
Lyme disease
Toxic-shock syndrome (non-streptococcal)