

Council of State and Territorial Epidemiologists National Headquarters

2872 Woodcock Blvd. Suite 303

Atlanta, Ga. 30341-4015

and

Rutgers Health Services

Rutgers University, Hurtado Health Center

11 Bishop Place, New Brunswick, N.J. 08901

Presents

“Public Health Epidemiology: Adapting To A Changing World”

June 9 – 11, 2008

Located at Adam’s Mark Hotel, Denver, Colorado 80202

Target Audiences:

The presentation is designed for primary health care practitioners such as physicians. All others are welcome to attend: physicians assistants, nurse practitioners, nurses, health educators, mental health counselors, college health professionals and interested pharmacists.

Objectives:

Upon completion of this activity, participants should be able to:

Identify public health disparities among various races and ethnicities in the US population.

Discuss regional and state public health similarities and differences.

List strategies to promote risk reduction and prevention in early intervention among various populations.

Discuss Epidemiology data to provide surveillance and screening systems models.

The Rutgers Health Services designates this educational activity for a maximum of twenty three AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the educational activity.

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas Standards and Policies of the Medical Society of New Jersey through the joint sponsorship of Rutgers Health Services and Council of State and Territorial Epidemiologists National Headquarters. The Rutgers Health Services is accredited by the Medical Society of New Jersey to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Educational Grant Sponsored by: no educational grant sponsored for this conference.

Disclosure Statement:

The speakers for this conference do not have any financial arrangements with any organizations offering financial support or educational grants for continuing education programs.

Anti-Discrimination Statement:

Rutgers Health Services guards against discrimination on the basis of race, color, gender, religion, ancestry, national origin, sexual orientation, age or disability in its educational activities.

Attendees with special needs should notify Susan Mayer, Cont. Ed. Adm. Asst., susan.mayer@rutgers.edu, so that appropriate provisions can be made.