

AGENDA

CSTE Annual Conference-Occupational Health Workshop
Sunday, June 7, 2009
Buffalo, NY

- 8:30 Welcome and Purpose Kitty Gelberg, NY DOH
- 8:45 Electronic Health Records: Implications for Occupational Injury and Disease Surveillance and Prevention
- Moderator: Kathy Leinenkugel
IDPH OSH Surveillance Program
- Opportunities and Challenges: How will the occupational health community take advantage of electronic health records?
Eileen Storey, NIOSH/CDC
- Promoting interoperability between clinical and public health electronic systems
Steve Shaha, Eclipsys Corporation
- Health Information Technology Standardization and Public Health: how to interact with the emerging Health Information Exchanges to optimize public health knowledge and action
Anna Orlova, Ph.D.,
Public Health Data Standards Consortium
- 10:30 Break
- 10:45 Using Social Marketing to Create Change- Farmers and ROPS
- Introduction Kitty Gelberg, NY DOH
- Panel Discussion John May, MD; Henry Cole, PhD
- 12:00 Lunch
- 1:00 Labor Perspectives on Occupational Health for the New Administration
- Introduction Henry Anderson, WI DHS
- National and International Labor Unions Peg Seminario (AFL-CIO)
- Protecting and Empowering Public Servants
Perspectives of a Statewide Union Matt London (NYS PEF)
- Construction Industry Janie Gittleman (CPWR)

3:00 Break

3:15 Environmental Public Health Tracking Network

Introduction

Laurel Harduar-Moreno, MPH

Grantee Activity

Daniel Kass, MSPH

New York City's EPHT program and lessons for improving environmental, occupational and policy collaborations

Academic/State Partnerships in EPHT

Daniel Wartenberg, PhD

The National Environmental Public Health Tracking Network:
Vision to Implementation

Heather Strosnider, MPH

4:30 Adjourn